

Please Note:

1. Hikers assume responsibility for their own safety.
2. Trail conditions vary with the seasons, Markers may be damaged or missing and map accuracy is not guaranteed.
3. These notes should only be used with the Carlton Recreational Trails Map

Long Trail (5 hours--all day)

Rocky Ford loop (9.0 miles):

Habitat: pine flat woods, wetlands, oak hammock, river flood plain, historical site.

1. From cabin take trail north past #10, 11, 11A to #13.
2. Turn left (west) on unpaved Well Field Rd. to #12.
3. Turn right (west) on spur around pumping station to Rocky Ford Trail.
4. Proceed NW. to #53; turn right.
5. At #54 turn left.
6. At #55 proceed right and then right again to join the River Trail that parallels the river.
7. At #56 turn left to river and Rocky Ford. A memorial picnic table is visible to the right under an oak.
8. Return: turn right (south) at #56 and follow River Trail to Blackburn Victory Garden site at Homestead Campsite (#55) with fire pit and picnic tables.
9. At SW corner of cleared picnic area, resume River Trail southward.
10. Proceed straight across water transmission line at #59.

11. Trail angles eastward to #52. At #52 turn right (south).
12. Cross power line (#50) and proceed south (straight).
13. Continue southeast on Wild Turkey Trail 1 mile to walkthrough gate at Mabry Carlton Parkway. Public entrance and parking lot is 1/4 mi. to the left of walkthrough.

